CONDITIONS IN INDIA ARE NO BETTER

(By Associated Press)

CALCUTTA, India, Dec. 21.—Despite the declaration of British martial law, the outrages of the Moplah uprising, which began the last week in August, still continue. The fair land of Malabar has been rendered desolate; railroads have been torn up; bridges destroyed; public and private buildings burned; government treasuries and private houses looted. Men, women and children have been slain and wholesale conversions have been made at the point of the bayonet.

The district magistrate has issued the following communique: "Information has been received that many forced conversions to Islam are being made in the eastern Amsons of Calcutta, and that Mathumana Ilom in Puthur Amson is one of the places where such conversions are being made on a large scale."

A refugee states that he saw 25 Hindus shaven in Moplah fashion like himself and made to chant some verses. There are also about 20 women and children shut up in Ilom. Women are also made to repeat verses and are made to wear Moplah costumes.

RECOGNITION COMES AFTER MANY YEARS

(By Associated Press)

NEW YORK, Dec. 21.—Benjamin West, obscure pioneer American artist, though he later became painter to the King of England, at last has come into his own in his native land.

For the first time in the century and more since he was laid to rest in St. Paul's Cathedral, London, along side Harry, Reynolds and Van Dyke, a comprehensive public exhibit of West's work is being held in Philadelphia near the place of his birth, by the Philadelphia Art Alliance.

The exhibit comprises twenty-eight selections, paintings and drawings, and, according to Albert Rosenthal, secretary of the committee in charge, presents a full view of West's power and versatility.

"From painting portraits in Philadelphia for a mere subsistence, to become the painter to the King of England, standing with Reynolds and Lawrence in his profession, one of the founders of the Royal Academy and its second president succeeding Reynolds, seems a bit of romance rather than a statement of fact," Mr. Rosenthal said. "But such are the facts."

ARROWHEAD SHOT INTO TREE 175 YEARS AGO

(By Associated Press)

RAYMOND, Wash., Dec. 21.—An arrowhead shot into a huge fir tree near here many years ago was recently discovered in a log cut by a local lumber company. The rings above the arrowhead were counted and showed 175 years growth.

The arrowhead was of blue flint and well formed. Historians here believe it was made by a member of the Chinook or Chehalis tribes, who occupied this section at the time it is thought the arrow was sent into the tree.

WOOD STARTS RIGHT IN TO GET ACTION

(By Associated Press)

MANILA, P. I., Dec. 21.—Governor General Wood, has announced that he has begun work on plans to consolidate certain government activities on an economical basis, in order to obtain sufficient funds for the care of lepers and the insane, and for education, public works and public welfare work in general.

"This does not mean, however," said the Governor-general, "that the services of certain officials or employees will have to be dispensed with in the government. We want all the officials we need, but we do not want the unnecessary ones."

One of the first steps taken toward pruning down the expenses of the government is the announcement of the merging of the mint bureau with the insular treasury, the mint becoming simply a division of the treasury instead of a separate bureau.

Not such a bad come-back at that

WE WERE all sitting
IN THE smoking car,
AND HARRY, who admits,
HE'S A born comedian,
TURNED TO me and said,
"I'D BEEN reading about
SPIRIT MESSAGES, and guess
WHAT HAPPENED to me.
I DREAMED my watch was gone,
AND WOKE and looked."
OF COURSE I had to bite.
AND ASK, "Was it gone?"
AND HE said, "No—
BUT IT was going."
SO THEY kidded me TILL
I THOUGHT I'd get hunk,
SO I said, "Well,
I DREAMED one day,
WHILE RIDING with Harry,
THAT THE barn was burning,
BUT WOKE up and gosh,
IT WAS Harry's cigarette."
AND HARRY said,
"NOT TODAY, old dear,
I'M SMOKING your kind now."
AND PULLED a pack
OF "SATISFY'S."
AND THE only come-back
I COULD scare up was,
"ISN'T THAT glassine wrapper GREAT FOR keeping
CIGARETTES FROM drying,
EVEN IN hot air?"

EXTRA! The Chesterfield moisture-proof wrapper increases our cost, not yours—
but it's good business for it adds to your enjoyment. It preserves the delicate flavor of these wonderful Turkish and Domestic tobaccos, and keeps the cigarettes firm, fresh and good-tasting whatever the weather.
